SENIOR STUDENTS

Dry Grad Parents: Please do not forget that your Grad will be arriving back at the Moscrop School parking lot at around 4:15am on Saturday, June 17th. We expect each grad to be either picked up by you or to make alternative arrangements for that morning. We also ask that you leave your cell phones ON during that night in case you need to be contacted. Thank you to all supporters of Dry Grad 2017 for helping our grads celebrate in an environment that is drug and alcohol free, safe, and supervised! Dry Grad Committee

Interested in attending Pharmacy school in the future? If so, you are invited to an information evening at UBC on Wednesday, June 14th in the Pharmaceutical Sciences Building, Vancouver Campus. This is a great session for grade 12s who are starting to register for first-year courses and have questions about the admission requirements for the Entry-to-Practice PharmD program. Please RSVP for this event here. Ms. Vancic

VOLUNTEER/WORK EXPERIENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Burnaby Family Life, a non-profit organization in Burnaby for 46 years is looking for volunteers. BFL has done great work in the community by providing supportive, educational or fun programs/services to the vulnerable population in the community. Our clients are from new born babies, to grandparents; their backgrounds are from every country in the world including immigrants, citizens to refugees. This is an opportunity to get involved in the community and also to learn the great work we do for the community. The only limitation is the min 16 year of age requirement.

Contact: Claire Chiang at 604-312-3243 or cchiang@burnabyfamilylife.org if you are interested. Grade 10 or 11 students (16+) can see us in room 313 to sign up.

Willingdon Community Fair on Thursday Aug 10th, we need about 40 youth to volunteer. Apply and find more info at: www.burnaby.ca/things-to-do/volunteering.html Shift is 4:00 – 8:30pm, (event is 5:00-8:00pm). Ms. Dato

Volunteer as a Summer Arts Camp Assistant at Artspace this summer? Must be mature, reliable student between 15-18 years. Work with children and learn about teaching visual and performing arts.
